Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC):

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) is a crucial component in ensuring the quality initiatives of educational institutions. It plays a pivotal role in maintaining and enhancing the quality of education and overall institutional functioning. It ensures continuous improvement, sustains excellence, and fosters a culture of quality consciousness. Here are some key points about IQAC:

Mission of IQAC:

The mission of the IQAC is to facilitate quality enhancement in all aspects of the college's functioning. It aims to create an environment conducive to teaching, learning, research, and community engagement. Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) encourages self evaluation, accountability, autonomy and innovation in higher education

Purpose and Establishment:

- The IQAC focuses on quality enhancement and sustenance within the institution.
- It is established as per the norms set by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).
- The IQAC comprises representatives from various departments, including teaching and non teaching staff..

Functions of IQAC:

- Periodic assessment and accreditation of higher education institutions.
- Stimulating an academic environment for quality teaching, learning, and research.
- Encouraging self-evaluation, accountability, autonomy, and innovation.
- Undertaking quality-related research studies, consultancy, and training programs.
- Collaborating with other stakeholders for quality evaluation and promotion at Government Commerce College (GCC) Naroda
