Report on Hindi Divas Celebration

Government Commerce College Naroda celebrated Hindi divas on 14th September 2021. It is a day dedicated to our National Language, Hindi. It marks the day on which Hindi language was declared as the official language of Union of India.

The first Hindi Day was celebrated in 1953. In fact, after independence, on 14 September 1949, the Constituent Assembly had decided to make Hindi the official language of the country. At that time, most of the work of the government was done in English. But, given the multi-coloured culture of the country, the need was felt for a language that would connect most parts of the country. After much deliberation, Hindi was chosen as the official language for this.

Hindi Diwas is celebrated to honour and promote Hindi language. Many literary and cultural events are organized on this day across the country, wherein people celebrate great works of Hindi literature.

On 15th January 2019, Government Commerce College Naroda undertook an innovative initiative to celebrate the theme of "Unity in Diversity." Each faculty member selected a specific state of India, and a designated group of students, chosen by the respective faculty, was assigned to represent that state. On the designated day, students delivered insightful speeches highlighting the unique features and cultural attributes of their assigned state. The event was further enriched by performances of various traditional art forms synonymous with each state, including dance, poetry, and other cultural expressions. This initiative not only showcased the rich diversity of Indian culture but also fostered a sense of unity and collaboration among students and staff members, reinforcing the college's commitment to celebrating and integrating diverse cultural traditions.
